In Loving Memory

Patricia Louise Arbutine, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and pioneering businesswoman, founder of The Silver Queen, passed away peacefully on April 26, 2025, at the age of 90.

Raised in Blairsville, PA Pat was a strong and resilient spirit from a young age, being a survivor of rheumatic fever in her adolescence. She went on to train at Bell Telephone, where her one-week salary outpaced what her future husband earned in a month. She married the love of her life, Miller “Art” Arbutine, in 1963—considered late by the standards of the time—and together they raised three sons, Greg, Chris, and Jay, born just 22 months apart.

A proud military wife, Pat followed Art across the globe during his service with the U.S. Air Force. They eventually settled in Belleair Bluffs, Florida. In 1973 they co-founded Belleair Coins and later, in 1979, The Silver Queen. As a sharp and astute businesswoman, Pat played a vital role in growing both ventures while always putting her family first.

Pat was ahead of her time in more ways than one. In her 60s, she became a self-taught “webmistress,” using the screen name “Dragon Lady” to build websites in the early days of the internet.

She made history as the first female president of the Bluffs Business & Professional Association and was a longtime member of Soroptimist International - she remained committed throughout her life to uplifting and empowering women and young girls, always committed to love, inclusion, and acceptance.

She was a trailblazer, a matriarch, and a fierce protector of those she loved. Her legacy will live on in the family she nurtured, the businesses she helped build, and the values she championed.

Here’s to the original “Silver Queen”.

Introducing The Silver Queen Museum

A Legacy of Silver, Stories, and Splendor

This holiday season marks an exciting milestone in The Silver Queen's rich history with the opening of The Silver Queen Museum, located on the second floor of our Largo, Florida showroom. Created by our owner, Chris Arbutine, the museum is both a tribute to his family's legacy and a gift to the community—open to the public free of charge during regular business hours.

The museum showcases an extraordinary collection of rare silver, fine jewelry, coins, shipwreck treasures, antique ivory, military memorabilia, and curiosities from around the world. Each piece was carefully chosen to educate, inspire, and preserve the remarkable stories behind the artifacts.

The Silver Queen was founded in 1973 by Art Arbutine, whose vision, alongside his wife Pat, laid the foundation for everything we are today. Pat, who passed away in April of this year, was the heart of the business. In her own words:

“The Silver Queen is my baby. She was my idea – built on the back of Belleair Coins. We worked very, very hard. I sat up at night at the table after working, taking care of the house, doing the wash, etc., and studied silverware – piece by piece. It was our whole life.”

The museum is a heartfelt tribute to the Arbutine family's enduring passion, and a celebration of the art, history, and craftsmanship that continues to inspire us all.

Group tours are available by appointment. We invite you to explore the stories, silver, and legacy waiting just upstairs

Highlights of the collection include:

- A prisoner's striped cap & star from Auschwitz, a deeply moving piece of World War II history.
- Full set of 24k Chinese zodiac animals, donated by our founder, the late Patricia “Pat” Arbutine.
- A royalist soldier's helmet from the English Civil War (ca. 1642-1651).
- Fabergé works commissioned by Czar Nicholas II.

A Note from Chris Arbutine

Welcome to the newest edition of The Silver Queen catalog—what I like to call our renaissance.

By definition, a renaissance is a rebirth—a revival of art, culture, and ideas. For us, it means honoring the legacy built by my parents, Pat and Art Arbutine, while embracing a renewed vision for the future. As the sole owner of The Silver Queen and proud mayor of the city of Belleair Bluffs since 2001, I'm excited to reintroduce our company with fresh purpose and enduring passion.

For decades, The Silver Queen has been known as a trusted destination for fine silver, jewelry, ornaments, and unique gifts. Now, we are more committed than ever to offering museum-quality pieces—curated with care, crafted with beauty, and destined to be treasured.

Whether you're holding this catalog in your hands or exploring our digital edition online, I invite you to discover what makes The Silver Queen a truly timeless experience. This is more than a collection. It's a continuation of a family tradition—and the beginning of an inspired new chapter.

With gratitude and excitement,
Chris Arbutine
Owner, The Silver Queen

PF 65 Ultra Cameo 1878 Seated Liberty Quarter

Add a once-in-a-lifetime centerpiece to your cabinet with this 1878 Seated Liberty Quarter, graded PF 65 Ultra Cameo by NGC. Out of a proof mintage of just 800, this is the only coin of its kind—NGC reports a population of one, with none at the same grade and only one finer. Liberty's figure, designed by Christian Gobrecht, is richly frosted and set against jet-black mirrored fields, offering the dramatic contrast that defines the Ultra Cameo designation. Razor-sharp detail, pristine surfaces, and only the faintest hairlines under magnification make this piece absolutely premium for the grade. A must-have for advanced collectors and registry competitors alike, this coin represents a unique opportunity to own the finest-known certified example—encapsulated and guaranteed genuine by NGC.

Gorham Sterling Ulysses S. Grant Set

This remarkable Gorham sterling silver tea and coffee service, crafted in the 1870s in the Japanese style, was a wedding gift from Senator Jerome B. Chaffee to his daughter, Fanny, upon her 1880 marriage to Ulysses S. Grant Jr., son of President Ulysses S. Grant. The seven-piece set—including a tray, hot water kettle on stand, coffee pot, teapot, creamer, sugar bowl, and waste bowl—is a masterful expression of the Aesthetic Movement, featuring finely chased and repoussé decoration of birds, bamboo, and naturalistic Japanese motifs, all accented with parcel gilding. A superb example of Gorham's technical and artistic innovation, the service reflects the refined tastes of Gilded Age America and stands as a historically significant work of 19th-century American silver. Tiffany & Co. Sterling Elephant Objet d'Art

This exceptional Tiffany & Co. sterling silver objet d'art, circa 1875–1880, is a masterwork of Aesthetic Movement silver, featuring a dramatic frieze of elephants in high relief marching around the body. Richly chased with foliate motifs and arabesques, the piece exemplifies Tiffany's fascination with exotic subjects and its technical brilliance during the Gilded Age. Likely designed by Edward C. Moore, James H. Whitehouse, or Charles Osborne—three of the firm's most influential silversmiths of the period—this objet d'art was almost certainly created as a special commission or exhibition piece. Its striking design and sculptural quality mark it as a museum-worthy example of late 19th-century American silver at its most ambitious.

Tiffany & Co. Platinum & 18.17 Ct. Untreated Burmese Star Ruby Ring with Diamond Accents

Exceptionally rare and of remarkable pedigree, this Tiffany & Co. Platinum ring showcases an extraordinary 18.17-carat untreated Burmese Star Ruby—an exceedingly scarce gemstone, prized for its vivid color and distinct asterism. Framed by 1.20 carats of brilliant diamonds, the ring is a US size 6.5 and comes complete with its original Tiffany & Co. ring box. Accompanied by an AGL report confirming the ruby's natural, untreated Burmese origin, as well as a professional appraisal, this is a once-in-a-generation jewel that combines rarity, provenance, and iconic design in one magnificent piece.

Tiffany & Co. Sterling Persian Elephant Centerpiece Bowl

This extraordinary Tiffany & Co. sterling silver 'Persian' Elephant Centerpiece Bowl was produced circa 1880–1881 under the direction of Edward C. Moore, the firm's legendary head of silver design. Likely hand-chased by master silversmith Eugene Soligny, the bowl features the opulent "Panel with Dahlias & Peonies" decoration—an elaborate and highly labor-intensive motif that represented the most luxurious option available for this form. Drawing inspiration from a related 1874–1875 pitcher now in the American Wing of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, this piece exemplifies the exotic Persian Revival aesthetic that captivated Tiffany's clientele during the Gilded Age.

Tiffany & Co. 'Roman' Grand Sterling Ewer with Putti and Bacchanalian Vine Motif

This magnificent Tiffany & Co. sterling silver ewer is a masterwork of late 19th-century American silver, richly adorned with classical motifs and a dynamic bacchanalian scene of putti in high relief. Rising from a hexagonal base, its spiraled body and neck are crowned by an exuberant handle featuring a reclining putto with grapes. Every inch reflects Tiffany's unrivaled craftsmanship in repoussé and chasing, with garlands, grapevines, and fluted spirals capturing light and movement. Once owned by Tiffany's legendary design director Edward C. Moore—whose example was featured in the Metropolitan Museum of Art's 'Collecting Inspiration' exhibition—this ewer is both a sculptural triumph and a historically significant piece of American decorative arts.

14k Gold Fabergé Cufflinks

Exquisitely crafted by renowned workmaster Mikhail Perkhin, this rare pair of Fabergé cufflinks showcases rose gold accented with sapphires, diamonds, and rich guilloché enamel. Perkhin, Carl Fabergé's senior workmaster from 1886 to 1903, was responsible for some of the firm's most celebrated creations, including the Imperial Coronation, Rosebud and Lilies of the Valley eggs. These cufflinks reflect the exceptional artistry and refinement that defined Fabergé's golden age.

The Origin of Christmas Ornaments

The tradition of decorating for winter celebrations dates to ancient solstice festivals. Long before Christmas, cultures like the Egyptians, Romans, and Druids used evergreens—symbols of life and endurance—to adorn their homes during the darkest days of the year, honoring the return of light.

By the 16th century in Germany, these customs evolved into decorating indoor evergreen trees for Christmas. Early ornaments included apples (symbolizing the Garden of Eden), nuts, wafers, and candles, each with spiritual meaning.

In the 1800s, glassblowers in Germany, began creating delicate glass ornaments shaped like fruits, stars, and angels. These spread across Europe and to America, where they gained popularity thanks to Queen Victoria's example and American department stores.

Today's ornaments reflect both ancient solstice roots and centuries of Christian tradition—blending history, symbolism, and personal storytelling into a beloved holiday custom.

Prutah "Widow's Mite"
Ca. 135-137 BC
NGC CH VF

The name "Widow's Mite" comes from a well-known passage in the New Testament (Mark 12:41-44 and Luke 21:1-4), where Jesus observes a poor widow offering two small coins at the Temple. Though monetarily insignificant, her gift was praised as being greater than all others, as she gave all she had. This coin became a timeless symbol of humility, faith, and sacrificial generosity.

Downsizing? We Buy Anything of Value

Tastes change, and so does the nostalgic connection associated with items handed down from previous generations. Often items collected over a lifetime may not be of significance to anyone else.

Bring these pieces to us for a free, no obligation, verbal appraisal. If you like what you hear, we'll purchase them on the spot.

There is no obligation to sell. At least you will leave with the knowledge of what your items are worth.
